Celina Insurance Group's Larry Goins receives NAMIC Merit Award

Celina, Ohio/USA – (10/4/17)

Larry Goins, Director of Personal Lines, Celina Insurance Group, was recently presented the NAMIC (National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies) Merit Award at the NAMIC Annual Convention in Denver, Colorado. The award is designed to recognize individuals associated with NAMIC member companies for their effort, accomplishments, and serious commitment to professional development and learning.

Bill Montgomery, President and CEO of Celina Insurance Group states, "I am proud that Larry has been recognized by his peers. His knowledge of the Personal Lines insurance business is a great asset not only to our company but to the NAMIC members as well".

Larry has served on NAMIC's Personal Lines Planning Committee since 2015. He has attended the annual Personal Lines Seminar for the past 13 years and is now a member of the NAMIC Merit Society. Larry has earned the designations of CPCU (Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter), AIM (Associate in Management), and AU (Associate in Underwriting).

Founded in 1914, Celina Insurance Group is comprised of four mutual property and casualty insurance companies. Celina underwrites auto, non-standard auto, farm, home, commercial auto and property insurance, as well as umbrella and casualty coverage in six Midwestern states. Celina Insurance Group is represented by some 500 independent agencies.
